

go on education, the minimum, thorough and efficient, and you ask about these words. They are tested in the courts all over, but what I am saying is I don't think we are going to get these things addressed unless we really do, so to speak, kind of box our own selves in, force ourselves into redoing the system. Finally, I believe if we do not have something on the ballot that shows we are putting some constitutional barrier on how far these property taxes can go, we are going to have a Jaksha lid, we are going to have Proposition 13, we are going to have something. Now that may be best. I don't know. You have to make that judgment yourself but if we don't show that we are going to get some control over this, somebody else will. You can act from the inside or they can act from the outside. I guess I think the responsible way is to act from the inside, give us enough flexibility but an order and a direction to do something, that is what the proposal would do. Somebody mentioned, well you don't have percents in there anymore. I don't believe we need them. The direction is clear. There is enough court cases all across the country as to reliance on property tax. If I really felt I did I would make an attempt on Select to put some number, whether it is a forty five percent or a forty or whatever, I don't think it is necessary but believe me, I will have checked it by the next stage so thoroughly you wouldn't.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Okay, are we ready to vote on the suspension of the rules? Is that the motion? Okay, shall the rules be suspended and the bill be then advanced. All those in favor of suspension of the rules vote aye, opposed vote no. The motion is the suspension of the rules. Have you all voted? Have you all voted? Record the vote. Oh, I'm sorry, my fault. Okay, shall the House go under Call? All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. Okay, record.

CLERK: 15 ayes, 3 nays to go under Call, Mr. President.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The House is under Call. Record your presence. Senator Murphy, Senator George, Senator Cope, Senator Fowler, Senator Schmit, Senator Lamb, Senator Maresh, Senator Kahle, Senator Haberman, Senator Barrett, Senator Hoagland, Senator Nichol, Senator Kelly. You are authorized to call in votes. We still have about five who are not accounted for.

CLERK: Senator Wagner voting aye, Senator Barrett voting no, Senator Pirsch voting no, Senator Chronister voting yes, Senator Newell changing from no to yes, Senator Kennedy voting yes, Senator Hoagland voting yes.